

A MANIAC MOTHER.

She Destroys Four of Her Little Ones.

THEN TAKES HER OWN LIFE.

A Desperate Attempt to Kill All of Her Flock of Eight—A Heroic Struggle of a Seventeen-Year-Old Daughter to Thwart the Purpose of Her Mad Parent—The Most Distressing Tragedy in West Virginia's Record.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 15.—One of the worst tragedies that ever occurred in West Virginia startled the citizens of Pleasant Hill, this county. Mrs. Philip Kerch, the wife of a well-to-do farmer, killed herself and four children and tried to kill the rest of the family.

Pleasant Hill is on the Northwestern pike, 16 miles from this city. Philip Kerch, a prosperous German farmer, his wife, Katherine, and eight children, the oldest of whom was named Mollie, and is about 17 years of age, lived about one half mile from the pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerch had lived there for about 16 years and had moved there from Ohio. They had a farm of 100 acres with horses and cows and plenty of everything to live on. For some time Mrs. Kerch has been very melancholy and frequently said that she was afraid she would die and leave her children. She seemed to be in good health, however, except that she sometimes complained of a trouble in her side, but was frequently very melancholy.

Monday Mr. Kerch was away from home attending a house-raising. At home Mollie, the oldest child, was engaged in washing and at the dinner hour no regular dinner was served but the children were all given milk and "pieces." This was about 12:30 o'clock.

When the children had finished eating Mrs. Kerch went to Mollie and quietly said to her: "I have given Johnnie and Freddie poison and we will all jump into the well."

Mollie, remembering that a bottle of strychnine had been in the house for some time, ran to the place where it had been kept. It was gone, but she found it in another place and threw it down the hill.

She got back to the front of the house just in time to see her mother pick up the baby, 10 months old, and throw it into the well, which stood 30 feet from the house and was 24 feet deep, with eight feet of water in it. Before Mollie could prevent her Mrs. Kerch had thrown the baby into the well and had grabbed up another child, a little 3-year-old, and had also thrown it into the well. Then the crazy woman grabbed another of her children, a boy 8 or 9 years old, but Mollie helped the boy to make his escape. Then Mrs. Kerch tried to throw Mollie into the well, but after a desperate struggle the girl succeeded in escaping.

By this time the two children that had been thrown into the well were dead, the two boys, Johnnie and Freddie, to whom she had given poison, were lying on the floor dying, and the other children, with the exception of Mollie, the oldest daughter, had run to their Uncle Dan Kerch's to tell what was happening. Then Mrs. Kerch, seeing that she could destroy no more of her children, jumped into the well herself. Mollie grabbed her and exerted her utmost strength to save her. She held her by her clothing over the edge of the well and tried to pull her back, but at last the desperate woman freed herself from her daughter's hands and fell to the bottom of the well.

Then Mollie ran to her Uncle Daniel Kerch's and met some of the folks coming. The alarm was soon spread and soon a large number of neighbors arrived.

Word was sent hastily to the husband and father and he came home as soon as possible. One of the first of the neighbors to arrive was Charles Baker, who lives near by. He got there at 1:30 o'clock, and when he arrived the mother and two children were in the well dead, Freddie, who had been given poison, was lying dead on the floor, and Johnnie, who had also been poisoned, died in a very few minutes afterward.

When the husband reached home an awful sight met his eyes. Mollie and the other children had been sent away to a neighbor's, and there was nobody to explain to the distracted man how it had all happened. The sight was an awful one. Very soon a great crowd collected and the bodies were taken out of the well and the mother and her four children were laid side by side.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the mother and her four children will all be buried in one grave at Skidmore's graveyard. Mrs. Kerch, who committed this terrible deed, was between 35 and 40 years of age and was well liked by her neighbors. She had become temporarily insane, and while crazy destroyed herself and children.

General A. W. Campbell's Death.

JACKSON, Tenn., June 15.—General A. W. Campbell died at his home here last night, of cancer of the throat, age 65. He was a brigadier general in the Confederate army, was a member of the constitutional convention of 1870 and a prominent candidate for governor on several occasions.

Cultivator Works Burned.

WAUSEON, O., June 15.—The most destructive fire ever in this city occurred Tuesday afternoon when $30,000 worth of property went up in smoke. Among the buildings was the Conklin cultivator works, valued at $15,000.

Child Drowned.

INDIAN OUTBREAK.

It Is Believed That Not Enough Troops Have Been Sent West.

BRainerd, Minn., June 15.—Company D, Third Infantry, United States regulars, with Lieutenant McCoy in command, moved northward at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

News by courier from the reservation is to the effect that the Indians have thrown out a double line of pickets in the direction of Park Rapids and are preparing to defend themselves from attack.

The whole number of Indians in the recalcitrant tribe is 400, and the fear is expressed that a single company of regulars without artillery will hardly be able to cope with the whole Indian camp.

No news whatever has been received of the fate of Dr. Walker.

A courier from the north, who had just arrived, said the troops had already gone to within 17 miles of the hostile camp, but that they would bivouac at night and push forward at daybreak.

HANKS WALKED OUT.

The Kentucky Capital Removal in Statute Quo.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 14.—The capital removal proceedings in committee of the whole came to an extraordinary end yesterday. The question of appeal from the chair was still under discussion, when Hanks, the chairman, said that the regular hour for adjournment had arrived, and he vacated the chair, though the motion to rise and report progress had been made.

Speaker Moore resumed the chair and declared the committee, house and everything adjourned. The house had extended the session without limit. Such arbitrary action was never witnessed before in a parliamentary body. There is great indignation at the rulings and loud talk of a caucus. The friends of Louisville, Lexington and Danville are boiling over.

A FATAL AFFRAY.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 15.—William Deal and wife of this city, separated months ago, the wife going to Indianapolis, where she figured in the police courts. Occasionally she returned here to extort money from her husband, and to threaten prosecution, alleging that he was living in adultery with a woman named McGee.

Several days ago she came back, and began running with a young man known as "Curly" Wilson. This enraged Deal, and he threatened Wilson. Last night the men met, and Wilson was knocked down with a bowlder. Wilson regained his feet and attacked Deal with a knife, burying the blade in his breast. The wound is regarded as fatal. Wilson escaped arrest.

Some Changes to Be Made.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—It is understood that the president will soon appoint a large number of Indian agents and registers and receivers of local land offices. It is also expected that Secretary Hoke Smith will sign the dismissals of about 68 clerks in the general land office. These dismissals are made obligatory upon the secretary by the act passed at the last session of congress making appropriations for the general land office.

Nine Persons Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—A car on the Switchback railway at Cape May Point, N. J., jumped the track and collided with another. Nine persons were injured, two seriously. Lydia Woodward, aged 17, of Boone, Delaware county, Pa., has a lacerated scalp, and suffers concussion of the brain. Arthur Harris, aged 22, of Darby, has a broken ankle.

Escaped From Sing Sing.

SING SING, June 15.—Convict Frank Adams escaped from Sing Sing prison yesterday. He was working around the stables outside of the prison walls, and was missed about 10:30. He was serving a term of two years and six months and would have been discharged on Monday next. He will forfeit six months' commutation if caught.

Schaffner's Dead Body Found.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The body of Schaffner, the missing banker, was found by two carpenters late yesterday afternoon in the lake, near the shore, about seven miles north of here. The body was badly decomposed. In the pocket of Schaffner's coat were found his business cards, and in the vest his watch engraved with his name.

Financially Embarrassed.

NEW YORK, June 15.—It is reported in the dry goods trade that the big Chicago dry goods house, known as the James H. Walker company, which does both a wholesale and retail business, had been forced by the stringency in the money market to ask the indulgence of some of its largest creditors in this city as well as in Chicago.

War Inevitable.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., June 15.—Advices received from Samoa announce that Malitoa still refusing to compromise with his rival has directed the government forces to advance and enforce Mataafa's submission to him. War is believed to be inevitable. Mataafa is personally very popular and has numerous devoted adherents.

Monterey on the Fourth.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Acting Secretary of the Navy McAdo upon the application of the chamber of commerce and the citizens of Portland, has ordered the coast defense ship Monterey to proceed from San Francisco to Portland to participate in the celebration on July Fourth of the opening of the Great Northern railroad.

RUN DOWN AT SEA.

The Servia Sinks a Sailing Vessel—Two Men Lost.

QUEENSTOWN, June 15.—The Cunard line steamer Servia, Captain Dutton, which sailed from New York May 24, for Liverpool, has just arrived here. She reports that on June 7 she ran down the American ship McCallum, Captain O'Brien, from London April 28, for New York. The McCallum was so badly damaged that she filled and sank a short time after the accident. The Servia stood by and rescued 24 of those on board the sailing vessel. Two men were drowned.

The collision occurred in latitude 40 north, longitude 69 west, at about 3 o'clock in the morning. The weather was hazy, and those on the Servia did not see the ship until the steamer was close to her. The Servia's engines were reversed full speed astern, but the efforts to stop her was futile. She struck the McCallum between the main and mizzen masts, and cut an enormous hole in her side. The water poured through the gap in a torrent, and the McCallum almost immediately began to settle, and five minutes later she sank.

The bow of the Servia was kept in the hole as long as possible, and while she was in this position 22 of the men on the ship climbed over her bow to the deck of the steamer. In the meantime boats were lowered from the Servia, and they picked up two of the McCallum's crew, who had jumped overboard. One of the drowned men was named Land. He was a seaman belonging to Liverpool. The other victim was Henry Mills, who was from London.

WASHINGTON DISASTER.

The Investigation So Far Has Been In Legal.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The supreme court of the district has dismissed Colonel Ainsworth's petition for mandamus on two grounds.

First, holding that a deputy coroner is not a legal officer. This invalidates the inquest as far as held.

Second, that the right of a person to be present at an inquest in person or by counsel is discretionary with the coroner, and therefore not a subject for mandamus.

In deference to the decision of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, that there is no such officer of the District of Columbia, as the deputy coroner, Dr. Schaeffer, who has been conducting the inquest at Willard's hall, in that supposed capacity, immediately adjourned the proceedings.

The curious point now develops that there is no body that has been viewed by a legally constituted coroner's jury. Unless one of the injured victims still lingering should die, it may be necessary to exhumate a body.

BANK SUSPENDS.

It Is Believed That Depositors Will Soon Be Paid in Full.

CLEVELAND, June 15.—The Baackus Wire Nail company made an assignment to J. Q. Riddle. He was placed under a bond of $50,000 and ordered to continue the business. No statement of assets and liabilities has been made. The Baackus Wire Nail company is a large concern, employing 600 hands. C. B. Lockwood, president of the company, said: "We are solid and can pay three for one. An eastern firm to whom we owe $65,000 for steel has been following us for several weeks, and though we have paid $25,000 during that time on the debt, an extension on two $5,000 notes was refused. No accommodations could be secured from local banks. We preferred to assign rather than give one concern preference through attachment. The house is good and so are the stockholders and we will pay in full."

CLOSED UP.

A Cleveland Firm Goes Into the Hands of a Receiver.

PAINESVILLE, O., June 15.—Yesterday the Lake County bank of Aaron Wilcox & Company posted a notice on its doors as follows: "This bank has suspended temporarily, being unable to meet the run on it at present, owing to the stringency in the money market. All depositors will be paid in full."

A run began on the bank Monday, but business men had all confidence and deposited in it up to the time of closing for the day. The general impression is that the bank will be able to resume business in a short time.

The personal estate of the stockholders is liable for the indebtedness, in all amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. The bank is believed to be solvent. It was organized 25 years ago, and has always been considered a sound institution.

THE KIMMELS IN TROUBLE.

Three American Swindlers in Vienna Sent to Prison.

VIENNA, June 15.—David Kimmel, his wife and son, who have an international reputation for being concerned in shady transactions, having absconded from New York in 1891 with a charge hanging over them of having defrauded certain persons out of $15,000, have gotten into trouble with the Austrian authorities.

After their flight from New York, they came here and attempted to obtain money by dishonest means. They succeeded in some instances, but finally one of their victims complained to the authorities of the fraud perpetrated on him, and the arrest of the trio followed. Their trial took place yesterday. They were convicted, and each of them was sentenced to six years' imprisonment.

ROME, June 15.—The phylloxera has appeared in the vineyards of Traphal, the district back of Marsala, and one of the most productive grape growing regions of Europe.

ON CANADIAN SOIL.

Princess Eulalie Crosses the Detroit River at Detroit.

DETROIT, June 15.—The special train bearing the Infanta Eulalie and party arrived at the Michigan Central depot here about 3:30 yesterday afternoon. The princess was partaking of luncheon when the train rolled in. Although little notice of the princess' flying trip through the city had been given there was a large and enthusiastic crowd at the depot. President Ledyard of the Michigan Central railroad entered the infanta's car and in a few minutes the princess appeared leaning on the arm of her husband. They were followed by President Ledyard, Commander Davis and the rest of the party. With President Ledyard on one side of her and the prince on the other, the infanta walked the entire length of the depot platform, through the waiting room to Third street and thence to the dock at the foot of the street. As the party came out the crowd pressed closely and at times it was almost impossible for the members of the party to get through.

The Michigan Central authorities had provided the steam yacht Wayward, which was gaily decorated with the Spanish and American colors, to ferry the party across the river, while the train went over on one of the company's transport steamers.

The princess expressed great delight when she saw the Wayward.

"Why, I did not expect this," she exclaimed to President Ledyard.

"We are only too pleased to do you the honor," he replied.

When she caught sight of the water, the princess threw up both hands and exclaimed: "What a delightful stream of water," adding as she stepped to the edge of the dock, "it is so clear you can almost see the bottom."

"You have reason to be delighted," said Commander Davis, "it is one of the handsomest streams in America."

The party was welcomed on board the yacht by George H. Russell, Henry Russell and Henry A. Newland. The princess took a seat on deck and leaned back as if enjoying the breezes of the river and her face showed her delight at being free from the dust and stuffiness of the train.

Asked by a representative of the United Press how she enjoyed the trip from Chicago, the infanta replied that it was one of the most pleasant and rapid trips she had made in this country.

The prince and Commander Davis took seats in the bow of the yacht and the rest of the party scattered about the deck. A beautiful box of flowers was presented to the princess just before the yacht left the dock.

As the yacht cast off her lines and started across the river, a ringing cheer went up from the assembled crowd. The infanta smiled and waved her handkerchief. The run across the river was made slowly. Reaching the Canadian shore the party at once went aboard a special train, farewells were hurriedly spoken and the "special" went flying on its way to Niagara.

Commander Davis said to the United Press representative that the run from Chicago was entirely uneventful, but very pleasant. But one stop was made, and everything went through as scheduled.

QUARANTINE QUARREL.

A Caneek Doctor Holds His Own With Minister Angers.

OTTAWA, June 15.—Dr. Edward Playter, secretary of the Dominion health institute and a recognized authority on health matters in the Dominion, renewed his attack Wednesday in the newspapers on Canada's quarantine.

Despite the contradiction which has been made to his previous statements by A. R. Angers, minister of agriculture, he adheres to the inaccuracy and asserts more forcibly than ever that the management of the Canadian quarantine is not only faulty but totally inefficient to protect the country against the inroads of cholera and smallpox.

He challenges the Dominion government to appoint a commission to examine into the working of the Gross Isle station on the St. Lawrence, and says that if this is done he will prove far more than he has stated to the public.

Referring to Mr. Angers, who spoke disparagingly of him in an interview with a reporter, characterizing him as an old fool and incompetent, who was not able to make a livelihood at his profession, and who was desirous of obtaining government favors, he says:

"While I am dying to get after Mr. Angers with a whip and give him a sound whipping in the street I have instead taken legal advice and will sue him for libel. It will hurt him more, perhaps, to touch his pocket than his skin."

Several leading newspapers are demanding an investigation into the quarantine system in consequence of Dr. Playter's charges.

Fire at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, June 15.—What might have been a disastrous fire was extinguished by prompt work of the firemen in transportation building at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. A guard saw a fire climbing up a draped post in the exhibit of the transatlantic mail line steamers in the gallery, and turned in an alarm, at the same time trying to extinguish the blaze. When the firemen arrived the blaze had reached the overhanging streamers and was rapidly approaching the adjoining sections, which are separated only by wooden partitions. The fire was soon extinguished, but several valuable paintings were damaged by water.

QUEBEC, June 15.—All the provincial ministers with the exception of Hall and Mackintosh have taken action for libel against La Patrie of Montreal for publishing libelous statements concerning the management of Jesuit estates.

RAN DOWN A GRADE.

Heavy Freight Train Gets Beyond Control.

A FRIGHTFUL CRASH OCCURS.

Five Men Injured and Twenty Cars Smashed to Pieces at Hamburg on the Nickel Plate Railroad—Names of the Victims and Extent of Their Injuries.

BUFFALO, June 15.—Five men were injured, one fatally, and 20 cars smashed in a wreck on the Nickel Plate road, at Hamburg.

A freight train of 30 cars was coming down the grade, when it broke in two. The brakemen were not aware of the fact, and the engineer did not stop until he reached the foot of the hill.

The 20 runaway cars came dashing down the grade at the rate of 50 miles an hour. There was a frightful crash when they struck the forward section, and cars were telescoped and piled up to a height of 25 feet.

Trainmen who escaped and others from the neighborhood of the wreck went to work in search of victims. The first to be taken out was James D. Dougherty. He lives at Sharon, Pa., and, with another man, was working his way to Buffalo. When the crash came he was tossed high into the air and dropped into the wreck, where he was found unconscious.

Joseph Buskey, who was stealing a ride, was thrown 20 feet and rendered unconscious. The two other injured men were brakemen and were not seriously hurt.

Dougherty was found to be terribly bruised about the head, his right leg fractured, and badly bruised about the chest.

Quinn's right leg is fractured above the knee; he is injured about the head and face and also internally, and will probably die.

Buskey has a broken shoulder.

DEFAULTER FOR $70,800.

Officers of the Irving Savings Institution of New York in Disgrace.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Defalcations aggregating $70,800 have been discovered in the Irving Savings institution, 96 Warren street, New York. The officials implicated are Clarence D. Henton of Brooklyn, who was president of the institution, and had overdrawn his account to the amount of $27,100; ex-Secretary William H. Buxton of this city, and Paying Teller D. D. Thompson.

After the defalcations were discovered the resignations of the three officers named were received and accepted, and State Bank Superintendent Charles M. Preston reported the facts of the case to the district attorney. Part of the money has been returned. The bank will lose nothing.

Superintendent Preston said that the defalcations had been going on for 10 years. Thompson said that he had used the money he abstracted for living expenses, and Henton said that he had lost $15,000 by going on the bond of Lawyer Cohen, who was associated with the Cassie Brooks case.

A HUGE BUCKET

PITTSBURG, June 15.—An accident occurred at the old government building at Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, caused by the collapse of the third floor. Four men were badly and perhaps fatally hurt. They were removed to the homeopathic hospital. The work of raising the building has been in progress several days. A huge bucket, working from a pulley attached to the timbers of the third floor, is used to lower the brick and stone.

The bucket was overloaded and the supports gave way, carrying with them a large section of the floor and a mass of brick and mortar. The injured men were working on the second floor, and were buried under the wreckage. The injured are: Anthony Mungen, cut about the head and face and injured internally; Patrick Harmon, serious scalp wounds and internal injuries; Tim Owens, leg broken, body badly crushed; Franco Barro, head, face and neck terribly cut. Several other workmen were less seriously injured.

VICTIM OF CIRCUMSTANCES.

Such Is the Claim Made by an Indiana County Treasurer.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., June 15.—Ex-Treasurer Smith is found to have been short $3,300. Some of Mr. Jenkins' bondsmen are very angry at his refusal to turn over his magnificent furniture, and Isaac Coons declares he will have him arrested and indicted. Mr. Smith has sold his property at New Washington to Dow Robinson and Abe Hollenbach. His friends claim that he is not to blame, and they assert that he will make statements very damaging to others.

Treasurer Jenkins said that he is the victim of circumstances, and that there had better be an investigation running back for 15 years. He also stated to County Assessor Selman that he had been offered $500 by certain parties to leave town.

Too Many Wives.

SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15.—Word has been received here that "Squire J. J. Smith, once a prominent and wealthy gentleman here, is under arrest at Santa Cruz, Cal., charged with bigamy and forgery." He has three wives living in the west. He left here several years ago under a cloud.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Partly cloudy weather, with showers in the afternoon or evening; cooler Friday; east winds.

On June 6, 1891, the visible supply of wheat in this country was 16,000,000 bushels in round numbers. On June 4, 1892, it was 28,000,000 bushels and on June 3 this year, it was over 70,000,000 nearly three times as much as it was a year ago, and almost five times as large as it was in 1891. In addition to this, the prospects are excellent for one of the largest crops ever grown. If the editor of the Public Ledger wants to know why flour is cheaper than at any time since the war, let him study the above figures. He is so afflicted with the tariff-mania, however, that he is blind to everything else.

A Mason Countian Honored.

Mr. Henry Lloyd, second honor man in the Class of '93, Kentucky University, was on Monday elected to fill the chair of Second Assistant in the Academy of Kentucky University, in place of H. L. Calhoun, resigned. Mr. Lloyd is a brother of Mrs. John C. Adamson of this city.

Pack Your Grips.

Says the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer: "The Postmaster General has nearly two hundred Presidential Postmasters under consideration against whom charges have been preferred. It is altogether probable that removals in the majority of cases under consideration will be made at as early a date as practical."

"In cases where postmasters are editors of Republican papers, if those desiring their removal will examine the papers during the last campaign and clip such matter as is regarded as an 'offensively partisan' character, and have some one present the clippings to General Bissell in person, the removal of the offending editorial postmaster will soon follow."

Didn't Get the Child.

Says the Commercial Gazette: "Judge Ferris has decided the controversy over the custody of the child, Edith Aaston. The claimants were Warren Gardner and wife, Kentucky people from near Maysville, who say the child is theirs. Judge Ferris assumed that the identity of the child was as claimed—that is, that the little girl, Edith Aaston, was the baby which was deserted and left on the steps of the Children's Home. But admitting that the claimants were the child's parents, the testimony clearly showed that they had abandoned it, and in so doing they had violated their obligations as parents, and lost their claim upon the child, as against Mrs. Osborne, by whom the little one was adopted."

Circuit Court

The trial of the Bramel will case was commenced this morning. The following is the jury: Joseph Downing, John B. Sidwell, George T. Hunter, Noah Shelton, George S. Hancock, William Smith, Charles Taylor, Frank Kennan, Russell Warder, Noble Richardson, Charles Biggers and Joseph Lowe. The suit is to set aside the will of the late John Bramel, an old bachelor who left an estate of about $50,000. The property was left principally to the wife and children of his brother Turner Bramel, with whom he lived most of his life. The suit is brought by Southern Bramel and other heirs of deceased. T. C. Campbell, E. L. Worthington, County Attorney Newell, James N. Kehoe and Allan D. Cole are attorneys for plaintiffs, while Cochran & Sons, Whitaker & Robertson and Captain M. C. Hutchins represent the defendants.

A LONG FAST.

A Hog Lives Two Months Without Food or Water.

Mr. L. Y. Ray, who lives near Millersburg, missed one of his hogs the first week in April. After a thorough but unsuccessful search for it he concluded it had been stolen or had strayed from the neighborhood.

On June 10 he went to his ice house to get some ice, and was somewhat startled to hear a faint grunt coming from the straw packed down in the house. A closer look revealed the long lost hog. The animal was so nearly starved that it was unable to stand up. It had lived about two months without water and without any food. It was taken out, given some gruel and at last accounts was in a fair way to survive its long fast.

Mr. Ray is a brother-in-law of Mr. G. G. Killpatrick, of Shannon, this county.

CROP PROSPECTS.

Corn Looking Well—Wheat Heading Nicely—Most of the Tobacco Set—The Fruit.

Following is the report of the Kentucky Weather Service for the week ending Monday, June 12th: The past week has, upon the whole, been one of the most favorable of the season for the progress of farm work and the development of crops. The temperature was slightly above the normal, and since the 5th the weather has been generally clear. These are the conditions most desired by farmers, and they have enabled them to perform much work which had been retarded by the long period of frequent heavy rains. Since the 5th but very little rain has fallen though the heavy showers on that date gave the State a nearly normal amount for the week. A little rain now would benefit most crops, particularly those in the eastern sections.

Corn on the uplands looks well, though it is very small for the season. That planted upon low soil is not doing so well, as it has been badly washed by the overflows. This is especially the case in the river bottoms in the western sections of the State. In many of them the crop will have to be replanted as soon as the soil is dry enough, and in others it has been impossible to plow. Much complaint is made that the fields are overrun with grass and weeds, but great progress was made in the work of removing them during the week, and with a continuance of the present conditions for a few days longer it will be completed.

Wheat developed rapidly during the week and is heading out very nicely. It is nearly ready for harvest in the western sections of the State and is approaching maturity in other sections. The general prospect for the crop is excellent, though it is in some need of rain in the central counties. It has been remarkably free from disease and destructive insects, the only reports this week which record damage from these influences being those from Boyle and Marion counties, where rust has caused considerable injury.

The work of setting tobacco plants was vigorously pushed during the week, and the greater portion of the crop in the western counties is now transplanted, and about two-thirds of it in other sections. The crop looks well as a rule, though cut worms have caused quite serious damage to it in Bourbon County. It is too early to hazard a prediction regarding this crop, but it can be said that it has started upon its growth with the most favorable prospects.

The harvest of barley and oats was commenced during the week and the yield, especially that of the latter, is all that could be wished for. Hay is about ready to cut, and the crop will be very large. Grasses and meadows have continued in the fine condition reported last week. The strawberry crop is about harvested, and the yield is only fair. Raspberries are ripening and the indications point to a very large crop.

Gardens are generally good, and the potato crop will be large despite the ravages of the bugs.

The indications that the apple crop will be short are growing stronger as the season advances, but peaches will be plenty, except in a few localities.

MAYSVILLE, KY., June 15, 1893.
Editor of Bulletin: In response to the letters and interviews of my friends, and the article from "Citizen," requesting me to make the race for the Senate, I wish to say that my nomination last spring was unsolicited, and after an absence of more than one year from my business, I do not feel that I can make a further sacrifice; especially as there are many good men who desire the position. I return my sincere thanks to the citizens of Mason and Lewis, who elected me, and to those friends who desire my re-election.

Truly, &c.,
GARRETT S. WALL.

A. M. CAMPBELL, real estate, loans and collections.

The Boyle Court of Claims has elected W. L. Caldwell to fill the vacancy caused by the death of County Judge James B. McFerran. His opponent was Hon. John M. Van Meter.

Mr. T. C. DAUGHERTY, of Elizaville, and Miss Minnie Summers, of Hilltop, were married yesterday, and were at the Central Hotel this morning. They were accompanied by Mr. Robert Darnall and Miss Mary Dudley.

Miss BEBECCA ROTHSCHILD, aged sixteen, daughter of an Ashland merchant, left home one day this week but was overhauled at Catlettsburg and returned. A special says it is thought she became smitten with Charley Vokes, the pugilist, and was en route to Huntington to see him.

THE MISSES YOUNG'S SCHOOL.

The Close of a Successful Year—Interesting Programme Rendered.

The closing exercises of the Misses Young's school were held Tuesday evening. The past year with this institution has been one of the most successful in its history. Interesting and enjoyable were the exercises, the pupils acquitting themselves in a most creditable manner. Following was the programme: Piano—Miss Garnet Hancock "Treasures,"—recitation—Miss Ida M. Smith "Vegetable Girl,"—recitation—Miss Mary Egnew "Bab's Command,"—recitation—Miss Nellie Owens "The Puzzled Dutchman,"—recitation—Master Kemp Ball "The Carpenter,"—Song by Boys "A Dream,"—recitation—Miss Annie Kirk "Mother's Help,"—recitation—Miss Lizzie Kirk "The First Letter,"—recitation—Miss Elenora Kirk "May Time of Life,"—piano solo—Miss Sallie Ball "River Time,"—recitation—Miss Bessie Wells "Scatter the Seeds of the Beautiful,"—recitation—Miss Ethel Lloyd "The Story of Deacon Brown,"—recitation—Miss Florence Dodson "The Stock Buyers,"—Song by Boys "Modern Minerva,"—recitation—Miss Florence Rogers "Echoes,"—recitation—Miss Sophia Williams "Anabel McCarthy,"—recitation—Miss Willa Watson "Pettie Waltz,"—violin and piano—Misses Maggie D. and Willa Watson "Circus Reflections,"—recitation—Miss Maggie D. The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California Liquid Laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

The Maysville District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, was held at Mt Carmel Tuesday and Wednesday.

MR. FRANK W. ARMSTRONG has gone to Philadelphia, to consult the eminent Dr. DeCosta, one of the famous physicians in America. Later he will be joined by Mrs. Armstrong and go to the seashore for the summer.

MISS B. VOIRES, doing a large millinery business at Ashland, made an assignment this week to D. W. Steele, Jr. Liabilities, $3,000, with assets about half that amount. The failure was caused by dull trade and slow collections.

JOHN T. HINTON, JR., son of one of Paris' wealthy citizens, shot at Rev. Dr. Varden, a well-known Baptist minister, twice the other night. Hinton has been courting Miss Nellie Varden, a daughter of Dr. Varden, for several months. On the night in question he was ordered to leave the house and never return. He was in the parlor at the time, and opened fire on the minister then and there, the latter making a narrow escape. When arrested the shootist showed signs of insanity and has been under guard ever since.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

JAMES B. FORMAN.

James B. Forman, Colonel of the Fifteenth Kentucky, was doubtless the youngest Colonel on either side during the late war. All the field officers of the regiment having been either killed or permanently disabled at the battle of Perryville, young Forman was promoted from a Captain to the Colonelcy of the command. He was killed, while leading a charge, at the great and bloody battle of Stone River, December 31, 1862, when only nineteen years of age. He was mounted on a coal-black horse, and being a target for the enemy's bullets was impounded by his men to dismount, but, refusing, was shot in the forehead by a sharpshooter and dropped dead from his horse. He was brought back to Louisville, his home, and buried, and it was said at the time that his was the largest funeral procession that had ever entered Cave Hill Cemetery. He was a son of Thomas S. Forman, a native of this county, and long a prominent merchant of Louisville and New Orleans.

And beautiful in death the boy appears;
The hero boy that died in blooming years,
In man's regret he lives, and woman's tears,
More sacred than in life and fonder far
For having perished in the form of war."

AMBASSADOR FAVA.

Italy's Representative Formally Presented to the President.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Baron Fava was presented to the president yesterday afternoon by Secretary Gresham under his new title as ambassador from Italy. The usual felicitous speeches were exchanged. After that ceremony Mavroyeni Bey, the Turkish minister, in behalf of the sultan of Turkey, presented to the president a magnificent medal commemorative of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America. The medal is of massive gold, about four inches in diameter. The center piece is a beautifully engraved cameo illustrating the discovery of America.

There is a suitable inscription in Turkish on the face and the medal proper is encircled with an elaborately wrought laurel wreath, studded with numerous diamonds. Just what disposition will be made of the medal has not yet been determined, but as it is really a gift to the nation it will probably ornament the national museum, or the library of the department of state.

STEAMER AGROUND.

Fortunately the Five Hundred Passengers Are Safely Landed.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., June 15.—The iron steamboat Cepheus, returning from the annual regatta of the Knickerbocker Yacht club, about 5 o'clock struck a rock in Flushing bay, near College Point shore.

There were 500 passengers on board. There was little or no excitement on board as the Cepheus was forced over the rock and proceeded to the dock. While the passengers were going ashore Captain Beal examined the Cepheus bottom and found four holes in her hull. He concluded that the pumps would keep the boat clear and started for New York without the passengers. The boat had not gone far when it was found that the water was coming in rapidly and she was turned around and run ashore.

At 9 o'clock the water was within a foot of her guard rail. Captain Beal and the crew remained on board intending to force the Cepheus further in shore as the tide rises.

One Point Gained.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Attorneys for the World's Columbian Exposition company gained an important point yesterday. Before Judge Grosscup in the United States district court they asked permission to amend their answer, which will be argued before the United States court of appeal, by striking out the words "and repugnant to the constitution of the United States." Counsel for the government opposed the motion. The court, however, granted the motion and authorized the amendment.

Strikers Resort to Rioting.

READING, Pa., June 15.—About 30 Hungarian laborers, who struck at the Henry Clay furnace in this city, engaged in a riot yesterday afternoon. They took forcible possession of the stack and a force of men was sent to disperse them. A desperate battle ensued in which two foreigners received crushed skulls and are likely to die. The rioting continued for nearly an hour. Fourteen Hungarians were sent to jail and warrants have been sworn out for eight more. All is quiet now.

Fighting a Cigarette Law.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 15.—A law passed by the last legislature prohibiting the sale of cigarettes has been successfully attacked through habeas corpus proceedings in the United States district court here by a New York tobacco firm. The state will appeal to the United States supreme court. The petitioners contend that the small package of cigarettes is an original package and its sale can not be abridged by state laws.

Celebrating "Flag Day."

BALTIMORE, June 15.—In honor of flag day and to celebrate the 110th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of the United States, the national emblem yesterday floated over all public buildings and was unfurled likewise by many private citizens.

Honorary Degrees.

LEXINGTON, Va., June 15.—Honorary degrees of LL. D. were conferred yesterday by the Washington and Lee university upon General Scott Shipp, superintendent of the Virginia military institute, and Hannis Taylor of Alabama, United States minister to Spain.

Demand Shorter Hours.

BROOKLYN, June 15.—The entire plant of Havemeyer's sugar refinery was tied up yesterday by reason of a strike on the part of the firemen who demand shorter hours during the summer months.

Cash in the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The net gold in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $92,138,815, an increase of more than $2,000,000 during the week.

An Incendiary Fire.

CANTON, O., June 15.—Through the efforts of incendiaries the works of the Dexter Wagon company, manufacturers of roadsters, are in ruins. The damage is from $12,000 to $15,000; insurance, about $10,000. The buildings have also been on fire twice before since the first of the year. Secretary Ed Myers thinks the work was done by enemies of the company. Two horses were burned to death.

Strikes Gas in Boring For Oil.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., June 15.—The Pierceville (Ripley county) oil well was shot yesterday and gas burned 10 feet from a three-inch pipe. This indicates a vast supply. Great excitement prevails throughout the country.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Complete Manhood
